Connie Dungs land second smash!

Yippee-yi-yay and yeeeeee-haw! There should be a new CONNIE DUNGS full length in the world by the time you read this. The title of the album is Driving on Neptune and it's yet another fantabulous collection of three chord punk rock tuneage melded to the sensational lyrics of Mr. Brandon Dung. Very much in the vein of the kidtested, parent-disapproved first album—buzzing guitars and distinctive snotty vocals. If you liked the first album, this one will totally win your heart. By the time the third DUNGS album is out you'll realize that THE CONNIE DUNGS aren't really the new SCREECHING WEASEL so much as they're the new JAWBREAKER. Or both. Or neither.

Just like the Go Bananas! is a cool and rockin' addition to THE AUTOMAT-ICS' catalog, Driving on Neptune will instantly be recognized as another first-rate dollop of classic tunes from one of the most important pop-punk bands of the current period. It's catchier than hell, hooks-lovers with a sweet tooth (like me!) will be bopping around the living room. Sneering and snapping in other places, Brandon Dung has an extremely distinctive voice and dumps out punk rock attitude by the gallon. The sugar here and the vinegar there are obvious—what takes a little while to figure out is how damned smart a lyricist Brando is. Just wait, save this catalog for five or ten years, history will prove me right: THE CONNIE DUNGS are right at the top of the 1990s punk heap.

And, yes, there is a violin on one song! Can anybody say "rock ballad?"

The band is getting a little more serious this time around. Their potty stage names have gone bye-bye, for the most part. Now it can be revealed that drummer Chris Griffith and bassist Wayne Griffith are brothers and guitarist Rob Lowe isn't related to Nick Lowe. As for Brandon Dung.... He's just mean ol' Brandon Dung.

Let me put this into print, too: Chris Griffith and Dan Panic are the two best drummers in punk. One-two, in that order. Bob Conrad from ZOINKS! is good, too, but he tends to overplay.

Mutant Pop is all about doing 100 cool singles and putting some albums for The Ages on the planet. This is one of them, please dig into your wallet and check it out!

I'm also gonna open up The Terrible Tunes of THE MUTE-ANTS for preorders at this time. I've got the CD off at the plant and hope to ship this one right before I leave on the Snorkel Bob U.S. Tour 1998. This one smokes. If you buy this expecting lightweight fa-la-la-la-la harmonies like the MUTE-ANTS single on Mutant Pop, you will be one surprised consumer. This flat out hauls, with tons of energy and attitude. Huge hooks, red-hot harmonica action here and there. This one really emphasizes how wanky, wimpy, phoney, and fake all the NOFX-clones are... If you want ultra-catchy uptempo PUNK ROCK without the slightest hint of vomitous Velveetacore stench, check this son of a bitch out!!! To be played at maximum volume. More info in the next catalog...

Vacation Notice—I'm Gone for June!

I'm taking the first break from the label grind in the three years since I've been doing Mutant Pop and 1000 Flowers. I'm gonna be putting a canopy on my little Nissan pickup and roadtripping around the United States with Snorkel Bob for a full month, beginning on June 1. Be sure that your order from this catalog arrives in Corvallis no later than MAY 30th if you wanna have it sent your way before I leave. I'm gonna have a pretty fun time on my trip, I'm gonna start by going to Cali and then will drive all the way to the east coast, before hooking up with the Connie Dungs in Kentucky and going up with them to Sonic Iguana, where they'll be finishing their third full-length release. Then I hope to head north and see Wisconsin and Titletown USA, before heading home. It'll be hella fun and I'll be doing a bunch of interviews with record-types in the process—which should eventually find their way into some swell fanzine or another.

Tim Yohannan

(1945-1998)

Tim Yo is undeniably one of the most important figures in the history of American punk rock. His zine kept the torch burning for the music when it had flickered out virtually everywhere. Later his magazine's pages served as a unifying factor that helped to bring about punk rock's rebirth on a mass scale during the first half of the 1990s...

It's pretty simple to nod your head and say, "yeah, dead guy, lots of issues of MRR," but the man's impact was far greater than that. MRR (and Alternative Tentacles) going exclusive with the upstart Mordam Records helped to put them on the map. Gilman Street Project, Epicenter, and the now-defunct Blacklist Mailorder have Tim's fingerprints upon them-along with those of many others, of course. The man's belief that punk rock was a musical form with a set of important functions permeated his publication, and his life and work have been an inspiration to hundreds of people around the world, myself very definitely included.

Tim was not a saint. He would sometimes fight dirty for what he believed in. He cheap-shot people several times over the years. Nevertheless, the man was a paragon of honesty, intense commitment, and unshakable dedication to a truly independent punk rock movement. He was fanatically devoted to punk as a cause and he dedicated his life to it.

I only met Tim one time, shortly after his first round of chemotherapy. I was surprised how soft-spoken he was on the telephone when I asked if Jason from Just Add Water and I could pop by his "mansion" and say hello. He was absolutely nothing like the mean cartoons of him that were appearing at the time in every fanzine that moved (my own included). He seemed like a pretty nice guy who smoked too many Pall Malls...

I have absolutely no doubt that had there been no Tim Yohannan, there never would have been a Mutant Pop Records. I think a lot of other record labels could say the same thing.

I guess a label using its ad space to pay homage to dead fanzine editors is verboten in MRR land.

We're supposed to smile and shift product like nothing has changed...

Funny, wasn't one of the new MRR Supremos just complaining about how the "flea market" aesthetic was taking over the punk scene???

DARLINGTON Girltroversy CD $10

It's pretty rare for my PICK OF THE MONTH to be a full length, 'cuz the point of the exercise is to get obscure singles onto turntables. This is a MUST for fans of Anthem for a New Tomorrowperiod SCREECHING WEASEL. Sure to be the best SW-sound release of 1998 and that includes anything by WHIN-ING FOSTER himself. Self-effacing throwaway lyrics, the hugest hooks, one of the coolest CDs of this or any year!

THE ROSWELLS self-titled EP $3

Ohio and Michigan seem to be an area of the country where a lot of great poppy punk bands are emerging, and Mentor, Ohio's THE ROSWELLS are clearly among this group. Fast and catchy as hell, harmonies here, WEASEL-like vocal sneer there. A totally outstanding example of what pop-punk should be... Four songs delivered with energy,. Great stuff, a hot debut record by a new band to watch...

THE AUTOMATICS "Kala!/Fortune Teller" IMPORT PICTURE DISC $5

This rolled in from Finland just as this catalog was getting ready to print. The A-side of the "Kala!Kala!Kala!" EP paired with the A-side of the "Fortune Teller" EP. Pressed in the Czech Republic for Killer Records of Finland and LIMITED TO 315 COPIES!!! My quota is 150, this catalog mails to 900+ people and I do wholesale to stores. You do the math. Scarf while you can!

THE HEARTDROPS

"Truth Comes Around" 7" $3

New York City's HEARTDROPS are one of the leaders in the back-to-basics "greaser-punk" movement, a group of bands that includes such notables as THE SPILLS, THE REHABS, and THE MORNING SHAKES. This new release on Break Up! Records includes one original and a smoking, ripping, rocking, flat-out fucking flying cover of "Eight Days a Week" by THE BEATLES. Nice package!

VARIOUS ARTISTS "Battle for the Airwayes" $3

It's pretty obvious that the world capital of the '77-style/street punk explosion is California. This slab introduces ya to four leaders in the field, BLADDER BLADDER BLADDER, THE BODIES. THE WORKIN' STIFFS, and BOVVER WONDERLAND, A sensational record for fans of the original punk rock sound and attitude. Catchier than hell, if you dig this kinda stuff, you need this...

THE BODIES self-titled EP $3

Yet another smoker from TKO Records! This is my favorite of the new batch of '77 sound releases in this catalog, chugging right along without guitar wank or other assorted annoyingness. Four terrific cuts in a nice sleeve and lovely puke green opaque vinyl. Excellent stuff, big time hooks and catchiness, an unconditional buy this! Includes a cover by THE BOYS...

THE VALENTINES self-titled EP $3

The best new female-vox release. Really outstanding stuff that will make you want to run out and buy a jukebox. I definitely have reservations about the cheesecake cover thang (DONNAS fuck off!) and some criticism applies here... But lemme tell ya, this honcho rocks like an Iranian mob in a queer bathhouse... Semi-lo-fi-ish jangle, "I Don't Wanna Go All the Way With You" is a worldclass pop classic. Imagine a female KUNG FU MONKEYS... A truly great underground pop smash slab, buy it!!!

HOME ALONE split EP with STINKING POLECATS ITALIAN IMPORT $4

Those of you who pay attention to import vinyl have already figured out that Italian pop-punk is very similar to its American cousin, deriving from THE RAMONES by way of WEASEL and THE QUEERS. This disc pairs my faves, HOME ALONE, with the band widely regarded as Italy's SW-STINKING POLECATS. Fast and catchy three chord action! An outstanding sampler.

THE GROOVIE GHOULIES split w/THE DONNAS included with GEARHEAD

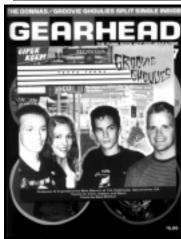

This is gonna be a mega-hot collectible, a single splitting my favorite poppy punk band on Lookout! (THE GROOVIE GHOULIES) with my least favorite (THE DONNAS). This baby includes a regular picture sleeve and everything, nice stuff and comes with a big, fat, gorgeous issue of Gearhead, the punk hot rod magazine. It's a $5.95 value, don't let the $5 price tag make you feel bad. One hell of an item for that record hoard!

THE SLOBS

"Another Piece of Junk" EP $3

I got a promo of the new SLOBS CD and it blew me away. The real sound and attitude of first-wave Britpunk: sneering vocals and loud, catchy guitars. Here's a 7" circular plastic intro to the band. Includes a snarly cover of "Feeling Called Love" by WIRE. one of the underrated UK '77 bands, a cover of a song by a band I missed called DECONTROL and two hot originals.

$5 w/purchase of 5 records

THE CONNIE DUNGS split EP w/THE SLOWPOKES $3

I cleaned out THE CONNIE DUNGS last month and now I've scored what are probably my final 40 copies from THE SLOWPOKES. This is all she wrote for an edition of 500, snarf now or forever hold your peace... This one features the rednecks-fuck-off! DUNGS anthem "Cowboy" plus two, along with the first vinyl from Ohio poppy punkers THE SLOWPOKES. Grab now if you need it!!!

SCARED OF CHAKA split w/FLAKE MUSIC $3

A nice example of the one-by-us-and-acover-of-vours formula. SCARED OF CHAKA are one of the greatest poppy punk bands on the planet, bar none, so there. The record label is intentionally designed to make it difficult to tell who is who-if I'm hearing what I think I'm hearing, FLAKE MUSIC does a fine job of knocking off the catchy buzzing jangle of SoC, while SoC goes alt rock on one for their mates! Orange wax.

LOWER CLASS BRATS split w/TEMPLARS $3

DEAD END CRUISERS "We Can't Be Beaten" EP $3

Another magnificent package from TKO Records, this one features another color sleeve and a big, fat slab of white wax. Mmmmm. Two originals and a cover of "Can't Explain" by THE WHO. Catchy and poppy '77 flavors with gusto and guts. Very much in the singalong bar band vein, fitting for this kind of punk—revved up rock and roll with intensity and edges. Another winner for you fans of the '77 thang who appreciate a good chunk of vinyl.

PORCELAIN BOYS split EP w/MARBLE $3

I got bombarded with orders for the CD promo of PORCELAIN BOYS, I know when to get on a bandwagon... Jangley and melodic tunes with heavy harmonies and top-flight production. The guys can sing... Sounds very much like early '80s new wave, very well done indeed. Two songs by them here, "Melted Shelter" and "Sick Fifteen." Splitting this slice of white vinyl is MARBLE, who match up nicely—cleanly sung vocals over well written, polished pop-punk.

THE SHAKERS "Reserve Chump" EP $3

This sleeve is simultaneously very cool and the stupidest marketing ploy in history. Why would anyone make a record sleeve that emulates the "looks like shit and sounds worse" VML Live Records series?!? It cracks me up—but I'll bet the sleeve scares away some people at the singles bins... This is much better stuff than any VML Live dung, an uptempo studio recording with aggressive, gritty vocals and loud guitars. It's poppy punk heavy on the intensity. A solid record, worth it for the sleeve alone!

THE TWERPS split 8" (!!!) w/SHOWCASE

THE WRISTROCKETS

"Broken Record" EP $3

"Thrash-pop" was a term coined by a

Roseburg, Oregon band of the middle

1980s called DANGEROUS PENGUINS.

Well, that's just what we have here from

Eugene's WRISTROCKETS. It's thrashy and it's poppy and if their cover version of "Best Friends Girl" by THE CARS doesn't make you laugh, there's no hope for you. A little bit noisey and abrasive, but a fun little spin, quite different from the pack...

"You Tear Me Out" 7" $3

These guys are regarded as one of the top their first EP, released just a couple years ago! Two short, aggressive blasts here, killer tunes from one of the recognized leaders of the "back to '77" movement. Nice looking sleeve, too, Deadbeat

'77-style bands on the planet, their fans are passionate—I got ten bucks in a trade for

THE STITCHES

SHOWDOWN $6 Weirdest damned thing I've seen lately, a record 8" in diameter. It's a little bit expensive, but the format holds basically two singles' worth of material: four songs by SHOWCASE SHOWDOWN and six more by THE TWERPS. It's a snotty punk extravaganza in a super cool format that will increase your inclusive fitness...

SLINGSHOT EPISODE DEAD AIR TO DEAF EAR

SLINGSHOT EPISODE "Dead Air to Deaf Ear" EP $3

Female fronted punk with an emo-pop feel in the lyrics department. FUGAZI was a part of this band's collective listening, I think. Don't get me wrong, that's no insult. While most emo-pop bores the snot out of me, this is a quality bolt of rock from Ohio and not bad at all. Three songs here, a record to be cherished by lovers of artsy lyrics put to good music. Not my thang but DISCOUNT fans might take a listen...

RED NUMBER NINE

"To Teach the Truth" EP $3

Guess what color vinyl? Yep, opaque red... RED NO. 9 is the band with the buzz for a couple years now. Female punk from California-and I don't mean frilly warmed over radio pop, I mean punk rock. Poppy enough for me, intense enough to cross over to people who think they hate "pop-punk." Includes a punk cover of "Silent Night," wunnerful for your Xmas use. This is in the vein of TILT but better...

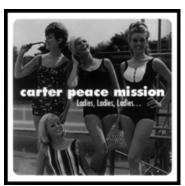

THE LETTERBOMBS "Well What the Hell..." EP $3

This band includes Scott the Harmless Records label-dude, but the story here is lead vocalist Michelle, who delivers the goods. A rush of punk energy, a bit underproduced, but energetic and catchy. I put a handle on these guys by thinking of them as a superior variant of NAKED AGGRESSION. Something like that, If you liked their first EP, you'll dig this, too!

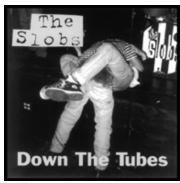

Some Compact Discs

The Turdz Teenage Rejection

BORIS THE SPRINKLER End of the Century $10

The Clearview series of RAMONES cover albums is being released on CD. I'm boycotting one of the releases 'cuz I know too much, but I'll have the others as they appear... The first little gem is Green Bay's favorite goof squad doing a number on RAMONES studio album number five. "Do You Remember Rock and Roll Radio?" and a lot of crap—but it is a BORIS album and if you're like me that's all the reason you need...

THE TURDZ Teenage Rejection $10

This is a wonderful, wonderful release of a catchy, honest, straight-on poppunk band from Maryland on a tiny label. A stupid band name, sure, but I tell ya, I had this thing installed in my CD player for well over a week—I couldn't get enough of it! The epitome of what pop-punk is all about: "I Hate Hippies," "I Wanna Raise," "Ain't Got No Job," "Teenage Rejection" and more. Highest recommendation.

CARTER PEACE MISSION Ladies, Ladies, Ladies, Ladies 10

San Diego's CARTER boys are back with a second full length release. This time around they've decided to do it themselves, with great results. Eighteen more energetic and catchy tunes, not too far afield of BLINK 182 in their less wanky moments. Honestly, the first album sounded more like that band than this one does, every single trace of SoCal gloss has been flushed down the toilet! This gets my seal of approval, no doubt about it!!!

THE CRETINS We're Gonna Get So Laid $10

THE CRETINS are coming soon to Mutant Pop with an EP, so you know I'm gonna be getting the wheels in motion with this new CD. Twenty-three songs, I just about shit when I first heard about that. I figured it would be too long and too boring. Not the case, I am happy to report. THE CRETINS deliver highly QUEERS-influenced three chord poppy punk rock with excellent songs and a distinctive and memorable vocal delivery. Top of the line goods from up-and-comers. QUEERS fans take note!

THE SLOBS Down the Tubes $10

A very big surprise here, I expected some sort of sloppy garage rock or something. What I got was a fabulous blast of '77-style punk kick, very much in the britpunk mold. Eighteen anthems that will have you singing along and bouncing off the walls. If you dig on Pelado Records sort of stuff and bands like ELECTRIC FRANKENSTEIN, this is one that you should be dumping into your shopping cart. Solid stuff all the way, crank it up and annoy the neighbors at the next kegger in your living room...

THE THUMBS THAT AND SECRET STRONG

GRIEVING EUCALYPTUS Just Plain Rock'n'Roll $10

Those of you who were smart enough to snatch a copy of the GRIEVING EUCA-LYPTUS 7" last month know all about these guys... Boy/girl vocals dishing out the 1950s-saturated poppy rock'n'roll tuneage by the ladelful... Juke box-type hits from a bygone age, done the pop-punk way by this killer Pennsylvania band. Released in 1996 but still timeless and essential, this was even recorded on vintage equipment!!!

THE MIGRAINES Shut Up!! $10

Do you like SLOPPY SECONDS? I mean, do you really really like SLOPPY SECONDS??? Well, THE MIGRAINES sound more like SLOPPY SECONDS than they do... A nice change of pace in a world populated with SW and QUEERS epigones. Twelve songs recorded at Sonic Iguana by Mass the Wonder Engineer, they even got B.A. from SLOPPY SECONDS in the studio to help back up two songs!

THE THUMBS Make America Strong $10

Emo-pop is all the rage, no idea why. In any event, THE THUMBS are reported to be leading practitioners, blending musical intensity, pop sensibility, and lyrical intelligence in a pallatable blend. I don't hear nearly the FUGAZI/DC influence here that I heard on their earlier stuff. This is not my cuppa but it might be yours, a quality band peeling off their second full length.

THE SHROOMS MiniHaHa! $10

I absolutely adored this band's EP on Cool Guy Records. Now they're back with a first full length, featuring 14 songs that blend a wall of big powerful guitars with intense, snotty vocals. This rocks hard, killer midtempo poppy punk. A more polished SCARED OF CHAKA, perhaps? These Southern California kids prove conclusively that the place can be your home without getting stuck to your musical shoes.

PORCELAIN BOYS Away Awhile... $10

I had a promo of this a while back and it didn't do much for me, but when I listed it for sale, the lid blew off the popper. I had like 7 or 8 people chasing one copy, enough interest to get me chasing down the title. Here it is! Polished punky pop in the general PARASITES food group. More power pop than punk, to be sure. Smooth and melodic vocal delivery without any trace of SoCal wank. Quality stuff.

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Tailgate Party 2 $8

NOTE THE SPECIAL PRICE. I hate comps. I fucking loathe them. They suck! The labels who make them suck! You suck if you buy them!!! That being said, I'll note that this one has a theme—Wisconsin bands. No theme/me no carry... In fact, this has two exclusive BORIS THE SPRINKLER tracks in addition to cool stuff by THE TANTRUMS and a bunch of other bands you've never heard before. 28 cuts.
